[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
TORONTO, August 28.—Al Leake, the spitball pitcher turned loose by Richmond early in the present season, stood his former teammates on their heads to-day, and won, 5 to 1.
Up to the ninth inning only two wild pitches scattered, and had been made by him. Adams, for the visitors, weakened in the sixth and seventh, and was followed by Dunohue, who was knocked out of the box before he reached batman. Eibel finished up the pitching chores for Manager Knabe, and was a vast improvement on Dunohue. Leake's performance, while high class enough as far as the net result of the game is concerned, does not look quite so good under close scrutiny. He walked five batsmen, hit one and struck out two. He was in trouble with many of the Richmond budgeon-leaders, but either by his own efforts or those of his supporting cast he managed to wriggle out on most occasions.
On Monday the Leafs turned off three ineffectual double plays behind Warhop, and they came to Leake's assistance again to-day with another trio of sparkling double killings in pinches. The runs were scored off Adams, who in the sixth by means of a walk and two singles, among which a sacrifice hit was sandwiched. He lost control in the seventh, after Lalonde had singled, and hit Leake. Truesdale forced Leake, but Jacobson scored Lalonde with a single. The big blow-off came in the eighth, when Manager Knabe sent Dunohue in to stop the Toronto hitters.
Lajoie, Schultz, Blackburne, Murray and Lalonde all hit singles in succession, three runs scored. Eibel went to the mound with nobody out, and Leake hit him for a base hit that scored two more runners.

HAPPY GO LUCKY WINS
Captures Lead and Comes in Ahead After Mild Drive—Fifth Race Is Most Exciting at Saratoga.
SARATOGA, N. Y., August 28.—Happy Go Lucky, out-broke his field, dashed by winning line, and held his opposition the entire trip, winning after a mild drive, the Adirondack handicap hurdle race to-day. Matinee Idol followed the pace closely and held on gamely in the final strides, finishing second.
In the first race, for two-year-old maidens, Rapid Firer, in close pursuit of the leaders in the early stages, disposed of Goding in the final eighth, and held Golden Glow safe in the final drive.
Silver Sands, under stout restraint in the early running, drew to his field gradually on the turn, closed rapidly when called upon, and out-gamed Passing Fancy in the final drive, winning the three-year-old selling race.
Holding her lead safe all the way, First Ballot easily won the three-year-old-hilly race, being only slightly urged at the finish.
The most exciting contest of the entire meeting was witnessed in the running of the fifth race, when the first three finished so close together that three judges were the only ones in a position to separate them. The Grader and Sam McMeekin set all the pace and raced as a team to the head of the stretch, where they were joined by Blue Thistle. The trio battled it out for three furlongs, with Sam McMeekin leading first honors by a short nose.
Serene won the last race, going to the front when ready, and winning with speed in reserve.
